Description

A brand new modern Colonial mansion with spectacular sea views. The villa has just been finished and is new to the market. Set in a stunning location with breathtaking views on a double plot overlooking Marbella and facing south west. This is an exceptional property and was designed by one of Marbella's top Architects, Diego Tobal. Greeted Into the Property with a Grand Entrance The impressive entrance hall has a magnificent double height ceiling and the double staircase leads to the palatial lounge and TV room, which opens out to the large covered terrace. A formal dining room leads to the spectacular kitchen with all top appliances and a seating area. Next to the kitchen is a staff kitchen with its own entrance and access to the downstairs staff apartment. On this floor there are 2 large bedrooms with dressing area and bathrooms, and a private sitting room which makes this a whole independent area for guests. Head Up to the First Floor for the Master Suite On the first floor there is a double suite of two bedrooms with their bathrooms, walk in closet and a large sitting room with access to a private terrace. There's also a luxury office with fireplace. The master bedroom suite is very large and has a magnificent bathroom suite, walk in dressing room and private terraces. Entertainment Areas and Further Accommodation On the lower floor are a further 2 bedrooms sharing a bathroom...
